WINE MERCHANTS

Welcome to our wine list for summer 2017. We have been working hard over the winter to swell our stocks of wines for the warmer months, which we are delighted to present to you in this comprehensive new list.

Summer Highlights

Tasting notes punctuate the following pages, which we hope will give you inspiration for your summer drinking. We particularly encourage you to take a look at our seasonal and press recommendations, from page 2. Here you will find some of our favourite zippy whites, lively reds and crisp rosés, followed by a selection of best sellers in the sub £7.50 price-bracket (page 7). The front cover of this list features one of our most successful new finds from the last 12 months: Kellerei Kurtatsch's Alto Adige Pinot Bianco. Shipped exclusively to the UK from northern Italy by HH&C, the impeccably-made, refreshing Kurtatsch wines are fantastic summertime bottles (pages 53 & 54). With rosé season in full swing, we are thrilled to have introduced a beauty from Aix-en-Provence to our range (Esprit Rosé), which complements our ever-popular, and consistently brilliant Pique Roque Côtes de Provence Rosé. Pascal and Nicolas Reverdy's pink Sancerre is wonderfully elegant in the 2016 vintage; and for something versatile and good value, our Italian, Cà Solare Pinot Grigio Rosé hits the spot (see page 4 for full rosé details).

Stars from the Rhône

Our selection of Rhône Valley reds has been given a breath of fresh air. Approachable, charming and with a bright, lively character, our ready-to-drink Côtes du Rhône listings are perfect for barbecues and summer parties (from page 44). For fuller, more intense reds, our recently discovered Vacqueyras and Gigondas are fast becoming favourites (see page 45). From the northern Rhône, delicious, mature reds (such as the 2011 Cornas from Domaine Alain Verset – page 46) feature alongside a concise selection of stunning 2015 vintage wines that are still available to purchase at advantageous, en primeur prices (page 47).

New Zealand

At the time of writing (mid May 2017) we have shipments on their way from the Two Paddocks and Kumeu River estates in New Zealand. 2015 is a superb vintage for the Pinot Noirs of Central Otago, and we greatly look forward to the arrival of our first shipment of 2015's from the Two Paddocks estate (see page 58). Kumeu River continues to be a leading light for top quality, New World Chardonnay and their 2015 wines are beautiful. Alas, the wines of this vintage are in very short supply here, thanks to a growing season dramatically hit by frost. But we have clinched stocks across their range, which are outstanding at all price levels (pages 56 & 57). From elsewhere in New Zealand, Greenhough's 2016 Sauvignon Blanc and 2015 Pinot Noir recently hit our shelves. The Pinot Noir is particularly fantastic and offers superb value (pages 56 & 57).

Thank you for your continued support over the winter and early spring. We hope you enjoy reading through this list and making your selections, and very much look forward to hearing from you. Our full contact details and list of "Who's Who" is on page 69.

SEASONAL RECOMMENDATIONS - WHITE

MUSCADET SÈVRE & MAINE SUR LIE

Domaine de la Chauvinière 2016

104.50 8.71 9.80

2016 is a great vintage for Muscadet. This expressive, racy wine has lovely concentration, depth of flavour and richness - the result of perfectly ripened, healthy berries. The nose is perfumed and fresh, the palate being light yet intense, recalling citrus fruits and elderflowers, all held precisely in place by a line of fresh minerality. The acidity is in perfect harmony, the finish being lively and clean.

CH DU CROS SAUVIGNON

Bordeaux Blanc 2016

115.00 9.58 10.85

Located in Bordeaux's Entre-Deux-Mers, Château du Cros commands unrivalled views across the river Garonne. The Sauvignon grapes for this wine grow on the limestone plateau above the castle - this elevation contributes a bright energy and vivacity to this wine. Here, Sauvignon Blanc is blended with Sauvignon Gris (80% / 20%) to give a beautifully scented, light-bodied wine that combines zippy lemon flavours with a satisfyingly creamy texture. The finish is long and refreshing.

CHARDONNAY

Kellerei Kurtatsch, Alto Adige 2016

144.00 12.00 13.50

This beautiful, unoaked Chardonnay is full of flavour yet has a lift and brightness that enlivens the palate. Nose is very fine, with notes of fresh lemon and lime. This is a precise, lively mouthful, that draws you back for more. We particularly encourage lovers of good Chablis or Mâcon not miss this northern Italian gem.

QUINCY VILLALIN

Domaine Jacques Rouzé 2016

148.80 12.40 13.95

We have shipped this Loire Sauvignon Blanc from Jacques Rouzé for over 20 years, such is the consistency of quality. This 2016 is wonderfully scented, combining ripe greengage and gooseberry aromas and zesty freshness. This is a full, open, concentrated wine, with bright fruitiness, silky texture and a clean, complete finish.

SEASONAL RECOMMENDATIONS - RED

MAS BRÈS PINOT NOIRCévennes 2016*

112.20 9.35 10.55

This lovely, organic Pinot Noir from southern France's Cévennes has been an HH&C favourite in past years - the 2016 has again captivated our admiration for its perfumed, brightly fruity style. The aromas combine ripe red berries with freshly cut herbs, the palate being juicy and refreshing.

CHIROUBLESDomaine de la Grosse Pierre 2015*

142.65 11.89 13.40

Our history of shipping the wines from Alain Passot's Domaine de la Grosse Pierre goes back many years. The 2015 is one of the finest vintages we have ever seen - the colour is vivid purple, with open, scented, floral aromas. This is an energetic, richly textured wine, with sweet raspberry fruitiness and perfectly balanced grip to keep the finish fresh and crisp.

PORTRAIT PINOT NOIRDomaine Zinck 2015*

150.00 12.50 14.00

Philippe Zinck's outstanding, organic Pinot Noir from Eguisheim in Alsace has a vibrant ruby colour, aromas being lifted and attractive, packed with freshly picked red cherries. Light bodied, with lovely depth of flavour on the palate, this is a finely textured, harmonious red, with good length.

GAMAY SUR VOLCAN LA MADONEGilles Bonnefoy, Côtes du Forez 2016*

143.20 11.93 14.90

Gilles Bonnefoy grows his vines according to biodynamic principles, on the volcanic slopes of the Massif Central, overlooking the southern Loire River. 100% Gamay, this vibrant red is bursting with life. Colour is vivid ruby-purple, with fresh red berry aromas. The palate is spritely and pure, with good concentration and a long-lasting finish.

SEASONAL RECOMMENDATIONS - ROSÉ

CÀ SOLARE PINOT GRIGIO ROSÉ

Provincia di Pavia 2016

Pretty, pale-pink colour, this light-bodied rosé from Italy's northern Lombardy region has lovely, fresh strawberry aromas. Gentle and refreshing on the palate, this is a crisp, clean, lively wine - perfect for all occasions.

ESPRIT ROSÉ

*Domaine Tour Campanets,
Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence 2016*

A brand new discovery from organically cultivated vineyards located just outside Aix-en-Provence, this is a classic, pale rosé with beautifully perfumed, floral and red fruit aromas. Dry and silky on the palate, there is bright fruitiness and a lively finale.

DOMAINE PIQUE ROQUE ROSÉ

Côtes de Provence 2016

A consistent summer favourite, and a wine we have shipped for 10 consecutive vintages, this is the most elegant and intense Pique Roque that we have ever tasted. The 2016 has a very pretty, pale pink colour, aromas being open and perfumed. Light, bone-dry, and creamily-textured in the mouth, this has excellent concentration of fruit flavours, and a fresh finish.

SANCERRE ROSÉ TERRE DE MAIMBRAY

Domaine Pascal et Nicolas Reverdy 2016

It is not every vintage that the Reverdys produce their Pinot Noir rosé, but when they do it is sensational. The 2016 is a bright, pale colour, with ripe, lightly spiced strawberry aromas. Dry, very pure and fresh on the palate, it is surprisingly concentrated for such a delicate looking wine. With mouthwatering, juicy, red fruit flavours, the finish is vibrant, satisfying and long.

PRESS RECOMMENDATIONS

Victoria Moore, The Daily Telegraph, 15th April 2017:

VIOGNIER Domaine Gayda, Languedoc 2016	107.50	8.96	10.15
---	--------	------	-------

“Here’s a benchmark viognier from one of the Languedoc’s most prestigious estates. The vines are grown at altitude, for freshness, and the wine tastes of apricot skins, with a slightly musky scent, without being too floral or blowsy. Love it.”

Matthew Jukes, Moneyweek, 7th April 2017:

CH LA ROCAILLE Graves Rouge 2015	114.00	9.50	10.75
---	--------	------	-------

“This sub-tenner (by the case) claret is a thriller. Made from a blend of 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Sauvignon and boasting some mightily accurate Graves structure and poise, this is a full, spicy, vibrant wine with genuinely refreshing tannins and classic 2015 swagger. You can decant it and drink it now in order to realise its class but, ideally, I would exercise some restraint and give it six months. I have no doubt it will mature nicely for a further three or four years too, so you can see that this is a must-buy wine. Don’t let people tell you that delicious claret costs a bomb. This is a genuinely engaging wine with gloss and intellect and it could not come from anywhere else in the world!”

Christelle Guibert, Decanter, May 2017:

MORGON VIEILLES VIGNES CUVÉE DES DÉLYS Domaine Raymond Bouland 2015	151.60	12.63	14.20
--	--------	-------	-------

“Bright red berry fruit with a hint of violets spring from the glass. The palate delivers depth with firm tannins and is balanced by red and black fruit concentration and savoury notes on the finish. Still shy, it will shine even more in years to come”

2012 VINTAGE

2012 is a generous, supple, charming vintage in Bordeaux. Whereas some of the wines towards the end of this list will reward cellaring for another few summers, most of the following are beautiful to open now.

For those of you who enjoyed the delicious 2011 Couloumey, this 2012 is an outstanding, more voluminous follow-on. Couloumey is not a big claret style, but rather a nod to the elegant, fine-boned wines we at HH&C favour. Aromas are attractive and sweet, recalling fresh red cherries and delicately fragrant spices. The palate is graceful, pure and medium bodied; texture is supple; the finish long, clean and refined.

Lovers of top quality Pauillac are in for a serious treat with this incredible 2010 Les Tourelles de Longueville. The second wine of Château Pichon-Longueville Baron is as close as one can get to the Grand Vin in this outstanding 2010 vintage – and it is significantly more affordable. This parcel of bottles and magnums has come straight to us from the château: colour is deep ruby, aromas being concentrated and full of sweetly spiced cassis fruit. Full, rich and powerful on the palate, this has well-marked structure, the finest of tannins and a finish that goes on and on. Decant this for a couple of hours, and you will not be disappointed. Or keep in the cellar and drink over the next 5-8 years.

2016 BORDEAUX EN PRIMEUR

At the time of writing (mid May 2017), we are in the midst of the 2016 Bordeaux En Primeur campaign. After an in-depth visit of the region's best châteaux in April, HH&C has bought a number of 2016 wines and identified several others which we hope to buy, subject to prices being truly attractive. Our website is being updated as wines are offered, and a comprehensive brochure of our purchases will be produced in the early summer, in order that you can make well-informed choices. Please do not hesitate to contact us for further details on the vintage and the wines, or to request a copy of the brochure, once available.

All 2016 prices are quoted per case in bond UK, for shipment to the UK in mid 2019.

From vines that average more than 50 years in age, this 2016 is a juicy, gently-textured, charming wine. With attractive, floral and red berry flavours, the finish is lively and satisfying - a thoroughly thirst-quenching red.

CÔTE DE BROUILLY

Domaine Gilbert Chetaille 2016

133.50	11.13	12.50

Born and brought up in Brouilly, Gilbert Chetaille knows the slopes of the Côte like the back of his hand. This may help to explain the precision and purity in his wine. The 2016 has a beautifully bright, purple-ruby colour, with enticing raspberry-scented aromas. The palate is medium bodied and vibrantly flavoured, recalling pure, crunchy red berries. This is a superb, youthful wine: a lively mouthful that will leave one suitably refreshed.

2014 VINTAGE

2014 is a vintage of small production in Burgundy, partly due to hail damage in late June, partly due to some heat-scorching in late July. Careful sorting to eliminate any less-than-perfect grapes also reduced quantities. The following 2014 Pinots show vibrant, well-ripened fruitiness on nose and palate; many will benefit from mid- to long-term ageing, while others will give enormous pleasure while youthful. Burgundy lovers will relish these reds, and should not delay in securing stocks, as they are being snapped up quickly.

This great value red burgundy is a blend of grapes from two areas – one above Saint-Aubin, and another near a little-known First Growth called Maranges, to the south of Santenay. But why is it so good? The answer lies with the vines themselves. They are really fine Pinots, producing small berries with thick skins – and half the plantings are old vines. The colour of this 2014 is purple-garnet of medium depth, aromas being very fine and perfumed. The palate is immensely attractive, finely balancing intense fruitiness with refreshingly soft aftertaste (for drinking 2017-2018+).

A high limestone content in the soil gives this red Auxey vitality and delicate perfume. The grapes were in excellent health, so 25% of whole bunches, without de-stemming, were included in the fermentation. This has brought ripely complex, openly floral aromas to a wine whose colour is pretty, purple-ruby. Palate shows impressive structure, with well-judged balance between freshness, fruit and gentle tannins (for drinking 2017-2022+).

This wine comes from two plots within Morgeot, Les Brussonnes and Les Boirettes, both planted over 85 years ago. They lie between the Abbaye de Morgeot and the Santenay commune border. These are really fine Pinots giving small bunches with tiny, thick-skinned grapes. In 2013, thanks to the ripeness of the vintage, Marc-Antonin elected to vinify with 1/3 whole bunches, which has added aromatic complexities. This is impressive, purple-ruby, with attractive floral and gently spiced aromas. The palate shows outstanding fruit concentration, rich tannins and impressive length (for drinking 2017-2022+).	m 360.50	60.08	67.60

Daniel Dampt makes very pure wines, which have the classic mineral style of Chablis at their core.

The 2015 is a beautifully balanced wine, the aromas being ripe, the palate richly built. Floral and refreshing in character, this is a creamy, finely textured wine with a super-clean, dry finish.

Pale, lemon-gold in colour, it has open, ripe aromas and shows charming fruitiness, with gentle, fresh, appetising aftertaste (for drinking 2017-2018+).

VIRÉ-CLESSÉ QUINTAINE

Domaine Guillemot-Michel 2015

Pierrette and Marc Guillemot-Michel were pioneers of biodynamic winemaking in Burgundy in the early 1990s. Their 2015 Viré-Clessé is the product of unwavering attention to detail - this is a simply beautiful wine where richness is lifted by racy acidity. With bright, pale lemon-green colour, aromas are intense and vibrant, recalling fresh lime and white peach. This is a full bodied yet linear wine with wonderful purity of fragrant fruit flavours and a precise, mineral backbone. Texture is satin-like, the finish being energetic and fine.

CHASSAGNE-MONTRACHET

Domaine Blain-Gagnard 2015

As in previous years, the high quality of this wine results from a judicious blending of grapes. 30% came from two First Growths (Bois de Chassagne and Champ Gain), which were assembled with fruit from five other Chassagne-Montrachet plots. This is very pretty, green-gold in colour, with attractive, fresh fruit aromas. Palate here shows richness, silky texture, admirable balance and fine length (for drinking 2017-2023+).

	This Grand Cru Valmur is a broad, opulent Chablis style. The vines average 50 years in age, the majority of which benefit from a sun-catching, south-east exposure. To complement this, there is a cooler north-west facing parcel, which brings vivacity to the blend. Aromas are elegant, ripe and concentrated with a smoky complexity. The palate is powerfully built, with intricate structure, great depth of flavour, and a long-lasting finish (for drinking 2017-2024+).

2014 VINTAGE

With fine concentration, pure fruit flavours and lively acidities, 2014 is a vivacious white burgundy vintage.

BOUZERON BLANC LES BOUILLOTTES

Domaine Patrick Guillot 2014

142.00 11.83 13.35

The most commonly planted type of Aligoté grape in Burgundy often needs Crème de Cassis to make it palatable. This Bouzeron, by contrast, is 90% made from golden Aligoté grapes (Aligotés Dorés) which give lower yields, with distinctly more intense flavours. 10% of normal Aligoté grapes (tightly pruned) complete the blend, bringing welcome freshness. Pretty, green-golden in colour with clean aromas, this is full-bodied, round and fresh, without sharpness – a bargain, for immediate drinking.

Domaine Pascal et Nicolas Reverdy 2016

177.40	14.78	16.60
--------	-------	-------

This Sancerre from Pascal and Nicolas Reverdy is one of the finest examples we know. The vines grow on limestone-chalk soils, cultivated without use of pesticides or herbicides. Yields are kept very low, accounting for the wine's vibrant, concentrated flavours. This 2016 is a splendid wine. The aromas are intensely scented, with lively citrus and floral notes. The palate has wonderful depth, full body, a mouth-filling, creamy texture and intricate flavour. The purity of the fruit is stunning, the finish being racy, refreshing and full of finesse.

Domaine Serge Dagueneau et Filles 2016

b 184.20	15.35	17.25
m 190.80	31.80	35.90

Serge Dagueneau's Pouilly-Fumé Domaine is situated in the commune of Les Berthiers, where the complex soils combine chalky limestone (containing millions of tiny oyster shells) and flints. This 2016 has a pale lemon-green colour, the nose being finely woven, with notes of delicately smoky elderflower and lime. The palate is full flavoured yet light of body, with intense citrus flavours and a beautiful texture. This is a bright style, being aromatically complex, with a long, elegant, spicy finish.

Red Sancerre is made from Pinot Noir and is often a lighter, fresher version of red burgundy. Here, thanks to rigorous vineyard work to keep low yields and fully ripen the grapes, the Reverdy Sancerre is a beautifully rich and fleshy wine. Colour is pale to mid ruby, aromas being bright, with notes of red cherries, raspberries and attractive, black pepper spice. Palate is medium bodied, pure and ripe. This has wonderful vibrance and freshness, the finish being clean and with gentle tannins.

Here is a bright, vivacious Languedoc white with zesty fruitiness, light body and lively acidity. This wine's clean, zippy style lends itself perfectly to shellfish and salads, but it is equally pleasurable served on its own.

CLOS CULOMBU BLANCCorse Calvi, Etienne Suzzoni 2016*

This is 100% Vermentino, tank fermented, grown on the mountainous north-west flank of Corsica. Vines have thrived here since the 13th Century, now under the appellation name of Corse-Calvi. Etienne Suzzoni is a leading light of the region, with 55 hectares under vine.

This 2016 white is a delightful wine; its aromas are very pure, combining fresh apricots and white peach. The palate is ripe and intensely flavoured. It has a creamy texture and a clean, dry, refreshing finish.

Joanna Simon, House & Garden, 18th May 2017:

"Domaine Gayda's 2015 Syrah from Languedoc is made in a cool, contemporary style with racy, pure, black cherry fruit and the trademark peppery spice that Syrah has in the northern Rhône.[...] If you want to drink it with fish, it's good with Mediterranean-style dishes with black olives, or recipes that include some smoked paprika or, if you eat meat, some bacon or prosciutto. Otherwise, it's very versatile."

CLOS CULOMBU ROUGECorse Calvi, Etienne Suzzoni 2015*

170.85 14.24 15.95

A brand new find for summer 2017, to partner the corsican white on page 42, this is a blend of 50% Nielluciu (Sangiovese), 30% Sciaccarellu, 10% Syrah and 10% Grenache. Aromas are sweet and scented, recalling red berries and spices. This is a rich, full-bodied, succulent wine, but there is vibrant freshness here too. Attractive flavours of fresh raspberries combine with spiced orange peel and dark chocolate. Texture is smooth, the finish being bright and clean.

Matthew Jukes, 100 Best Summer Reds & Rosés, Daily Mail, 20th May 2017:

"This is a modern Côtes du Rhône with silky fruit and a determined air. The nose is joyous with swirling red and black fruit and the finish melts away in true harmony."

117.00 9.75 10.95

Located on a plateau characterised by stretches of river-smoothed pebbles, Signargues is known for wines that are subtle and elegant, with underlying power. Colour is bright, mid ruby-purple, the nose being lively and perfumed: full of peppery dark fruit. Full and well structured on the palate, there is lovely concentration of floral dark berry flavours, fine texture and a long finish.

Domaine des Florets' location, at the foot of the eye-catching Dentelles de Montmirail, is simply beautiful. The vines perch precariously above the domaine buildings, on north-east facing, mountainside terraces. This is "high altitude Gigondas", which perhaps explains why we like it so much. A blend of 80% Grenache with 15% Syrah and 5% Mourvèdre, great lengths are taken to treat grapes and wine gently, resulting in a Gigondas that is powerful but has elegance and lightness of touch. Deep ruby-purple colour, aromas are tightly woven and lifted, leading to a palate that is full, fine and gently tannic. Flavours are complex, recalling sweet strawberries, spiced orange peel and licorice (for drinking 2017-2021+).
 CHÂTEAUNEUF DU PAPE Font de Joubert 2015		280.00	23.33	26.25
Vine age is an important contributory factor in the production of high quality Châteauneuf du Pape. At Font de Joubert, a great number of the Grenache vines are centenarians, these gnarled old vines giving intensely concentrated juice, contributing complexity and depth of flavour. This wine is very much of the elegant rather than powerful Châteauneuf school. Mid ruby colour, aromas are smoky and spiced, with notes of red fruits and fresh herbs. Palate starts full and grows in the mouth; it is structured, multi-layered, silky textured and lively. The finish is long-lasting (for drinking 2017-2022+).

The Clos de Cuminaille is where Pierre Gaillard first planted vines when he set up his family domaine in 1981. Mid ruby colour, aromas are enticing and lively, recalling red cherries, rose petals and black pepper spice: this is classic, ready-to-drink northern Rhône Syrah. Medium to full bodied on the palate, there is wonderful purity of fruit, fine, linear structure and an attractive bite of tannins to finish.

This Grand Cru, grower champagne is made in tiny quantities by Louis Cheval-Gatinois. Owning 7.5 hectares in the village of Aÿ, the blend is dominated by Pinot Noir - bringing structure and vinosity - with Chardonnay contributing freshness and creaminess of texture. The colour is a thrilling, mid-gold, with tiny, persistent bubbles. Aromas are intense and lifted, flavours recalling brioche, hazelnuts and delicately perfumed red berries. Full bodied, with marked structure, the finish is long lingering and refreshing.

Daughter of biodynamic pioneers Pierrette and Marc, Sophie Guillemot-Michel is a vital part of the team at the family domaine (see page 33). This wine is her most recent addition to their creations, the 2015 being her second vintage. Just 2000 bottles were made of this 100% Chardonnay sparkling wine. Pale lemon colour, bubbles are tiny and vivacious, aromas being clean and lemony. Full, silky and cleansing on the palate, this is a fully sparkling, energetic, zippy mouthful. The finish is crisp, precise and more-ish.

GREENHOUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC

Nelson 2016

Very pale lemon-green colour, aromas are attractive and aromatic, recalling fresh lemons, gooseberries and pea-tops. Light bodied, racy and crisp on the palate, this is an elegant, lively New Zealand Sauvignon, where focus is on subtle, delicate aromatics rather than pungent, big flavours. The finish is silky, uplifting and fine.

Kumeu is situated half an hour north-west of Auckland. Its proximity to the ocean to the west and east means that this is a cool zone for vine growing, with regular cloud cover and cool sea breezes moderating potential high temperatures. Kumeu River's Estate cuvée is a benchmark New Zealand Chardonnay. Aromas of this 2015 are vibrant, recalling lemons and a hint of smoke. The palate is full bodied and creamily textured, with attractive citrus and white peach flavours. This is a perfectly balanced, racy wine, where oak barrels have been used judiciously for maturation (20% new) to give delicate hints of spice and richness of mouth-feel, the finish being long-flavoured and fine.

We are delighted to see the return to our list of Greenhough's superb value Pinot Noir. It is a real beauty in this freshly shipped 2015 vintage. Bright, mid ruby colour, aromas are lively, with notes of spiced strawberries. This is a fleshy Pinot style, having pure, vibrant fruitiness, a supple texture, fine structure and a smooth finish.

TWO PADDOCKS PINOT NOIR

Two Paddocks, Central Otago 2015	6b 150.00	25.00	28.25
---	-----------	-------	-------

The flagship wine from Two Paddocks, this organically grown barrel selection comes from Pinot Noir grapes sourced from across the estate's four Central Otago vineyards (The Fusilier - Bannockburn; The Last Chance - Earnsclough; The Red Bank - Earnsclough; The First Paddock - Gibbston). 25% whole bunches went into the fermentation vats, contributing flavour complexity, structure and silky texture to the wine. Pale ruby colour, aromas are beautiful and pure, full of strawberries and raspberries and with hints of floral aromatics. The palate is full, generous and intense. Red and darker berry flavours intermingle with spice; the finish is long, elegant and with the gentlest of fine tannins. A classic, beautiful Central Otago Pinot (for drinking 2017-2021+).
