Les Traboules Coteaux du Lyonnais, Clusel-Roch 2020

The Clusel-Roch family is most famously celebrated for their Syrah from the slopes of Côte-Rôtie. More recent vineyard purchases have extended into the nearby Coteaux du Lyonnais, where it is the Gamay grape that thrives. This is a crunchy, organically made red, having light body, scented, red summer fruit flavours, and a radiant finish.

The Chablis & Claret Dozen

The wine aged for 5 years in the cellars in Avize, prior to disgorgement in summer 2022.

Full bodied and having a very fine, straight structure, texture is silky-smooth the finish being harmonious, mineral and long-flavoured (for drinking 2023-2030+).

This case contains a dozen bottles.

Individual Magnums

Champagne Pierre Vaudon
Premier Cru NV

£91.85

The ultimate celebratory champagne, our Non-Vintage Pierre Vaudon is vivacious and silky-smooth. Pinot Noir from Grand Cru vineyards makes up 75% of the blend, bringing structure and depth of flavour. The remaining 25% is Chardonnay sourced from Premier Cru sites on the Côte des Blancs, contributing finesse and racy lemony character. Matured in bottle for 36 months, this cannot fail to satisfy the taste-buds. Superb for immediate drinking, it also matures superbly in a cool cellar, gaining complexity, for five years or more.

Champagne Louis Roederer
Collection NV

£130.65

Roederer's multi-vintage Collection cuvée is a blend of 40% Chardonnay, 40% Pinot Noir and 20% Pinot Meunier sourced exclusively from three of the Domaine's own vineyards: La Rivière, La Montagne and La Côte.

Pale golden colour with beautifully vivacious bubbles, aromas are very fresh and taut, recalling red fruits, brioche and pain grillé. Palate is full, supple and generous, having exquisite freshness, fine structure and very lively mouthfeel. This champagne is marked by its elegance and finesse, having lovely depth of flavour. The finish is persistent, crisp and silky.

Chablis
Domaine Daniel Damppt 2022

£62.05

Damppt's Village Chablis comes predominantly from old, 45 year-old vines that grow near the family Domaine, in the hamlet of Milly. No oak is used here, so this is a pristine expression of Chardonnay grown on these chalky hillsides. Colour is bright, pale lemon-gold, having pure, lemony aromas. This is a lively, intense, freshly citrusy mouthful, being silkily textured and finely structured. It finishes with raciness, vitality and excellent length.

Le Temps Est Venu
Côtes du Rhône, Domaine Ogier 2021

£49.95

Ogier's Côtes du Rhône comes two family-owned vineyards: one in Plan de Dieu, which gives more powerful, richer styles; complementing this, freshness and structure is contributed by grapes grown at higher altitude in the Visan commune. A blend of 96% Grenache with 4% Syrah, this 2021 is bright, ruby in colour, aromas being fragrant and pure, recalling ripe strawberry, bramble fruits, with pleasing hints of garrigue herbs. The palate is full bodied, having excellent concentration, juicy, supple texture and a perfectly balanced, smooth finish.

Individual Magnums

Château Beauregard Ducasse
Graves 2019

£46.35

From the highest hillside in the appellation, classic Graves aromas – cedar, spice and smokiness – combine seamlessly with ripe berry fruits. This is a super wine, with bright, intense fruit and a textured palate. There is lovely balance and a classy, long finish.

Château Cantemerle
5ème Cru Classé Haut-Médoc 2012

£105.70

Château Cantemerle was hugely on song in 2012 and we are delighted to be offering it, now it has reached maturity. One is immediately entranced by the aromas that are intense, floral, ripe and complex. This is a wine of tremendous fruit purity and elegance. Concentrated red fruits and silky, creamy textures abound. It has a fine structure and excellent freshness, with a long finish.

Château de Bel-Air
Lalande de Pomerol 2016

£76.10

Château de Bel-Air lies on a sunny plateau, which leads gently southward towards the Barbanne stream, with the Pomerol appellation just across the water. This is one of the best terroirs of Lalande-de-Pomerol, with gravel soils making up 70% of the estate, the balance being gravels mixed with iron-rich clay. A blend of 73% Merlot, 19% Cabernet Franc with 8% Cabernet Sauvignon, which aged in 40% new barrels, this 2016 is truly blossoming. Colour is deep ruby, the nose being vibrant with floral red fruits. Palate shows fine balance between rich fruit density, gentle tannins, refreshing acidity and smooth, long aftertaste – a lovely, complete wine (for drinking 2023-2028+).

Château Grand-Puy-Lacoste
5ème Cru Classé Pauillac 2014

£200.20

This beautiful wine was made by one of the most adept, classic wine makers in Bordeaux, owner François-Xavier Borie, assisted by his daughter Emeline. In 2014, Cabernet Sauvignon makes up 82% of the blend, Merlot 18%, with the Grand Vin representing only 45% of the estate's production. Colour is solid, deep ruby-garnet, the nose being fragrant, rich and complex, with notes of ripe black fruits and spices. The palate is powerfully built, with bouncy, fresh fruit personality, great concentration, and elegant tannins of exceptional finesse. The finish is harmonious and very long (for drinking 2023–2035+).
