MAGNUMS

LOUIS ROEDERER COLLECTION 242 NV

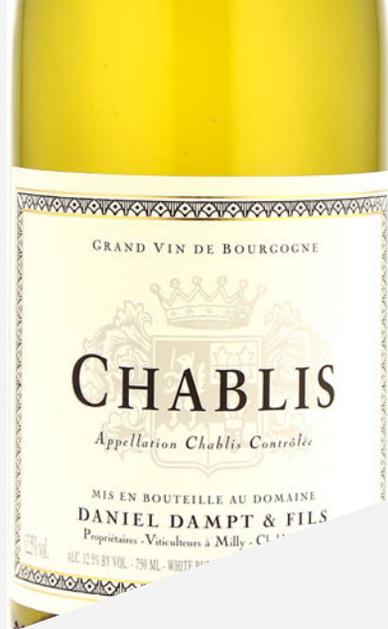

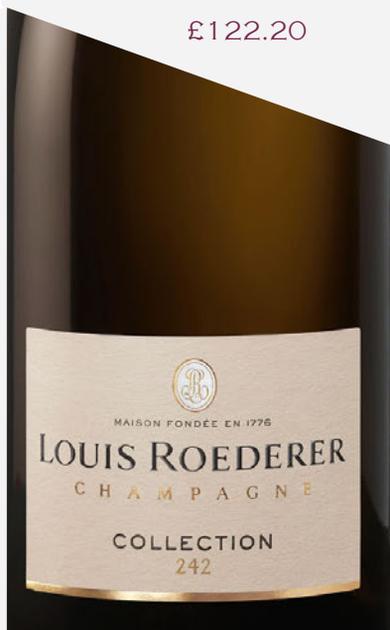

Roederer's new, multi-vintage Collection 242 is an exquisitely complex champagne thanks to its high percentage of aged reserve wines, which comprise a generous 44% of the blend. This is silkily-textured and delightfully refreshing.

£122.20

CHAMPAGNE PIERRE VAUDON NV

Our flagship, celebratory champagne. Pinot Noir from Grand Cru vineyards make up 75% of the blend, with 25% being Chardonnay from Premier Cru sites in the Côte des Blancs, bringing finesse and freshness. A classic.

£81.65

CHABLIS, DOMAINE DANIEL DAMPT 2019

Daniel Dampt's village Chablis is consistently a gem in our crown. Unoaked, pure and finely concentrated, this displays Chablis' signature minerality and verve.

£54.70

COTES DU RHONE, DOMAINE DE VERQUIERE 2019

Brimming with ripe berry fruit, this Côtes du Rhone is full bodied yet fine boned. Made up of 80% Grenache and 20% Syrah, this crowd pleasing magnum is sure to go down a treat with everyone at the dinner table.

£42.05

CHÂTEAU LAUJAC

MÉDOC
CRU BOURGEOIS

CHATEAU LAUJAC, MEDOC 2016

From the excellent 2016 vintage, Château Laujac boasts rich, black fruit, character combined with subtle floral notes and smoky spice. The result is a most beguiling Christmas Claret.

£55.40

SAVIGNY-LES-BEAUNE 'GODEAUX', DOMAINE SEGUIN-MANUEL 2018

Seguin-Manuel's 'Godeaux' is a silky, aromatic Savigny from a sunny, south-facing vineyard. It combines spiced, wild strawberry fragrance and mineral freshness. A charming, ready-to-drink Burgundy.

LACOSTE-BORIE, PAUILLAC 2014

Second wine of the famed Grand-Puy-Lacoste, the 2014 Lacoste-Borie is hitting its stride. Revealing delicate cedar smokiness alongside generous black fruit, this magnum would make a spectacular gift.

£90.70

CHATEAU CARBONNIEUX, PESSAC-LEOGNAN 2014

Here is a gloriously fragrant Pessac-Leognan, having depth, richness, precise structure and finesse. An age-worthy wine (we recommend decanting before serving), this is truly magnificent.
