Exceptional Wines from the Loire Valley's Jacky Blot

The highly-respected father and son team of Jacky and Jean-Philippe Blot owns and runs Domaine de la Taille aux Loups in Montlouis and Domaine de la Butte in Bourgueil. We have long-admired their wines, which are some of the Loire Valley's most sensitively made, quality-driven examples. As we are familiar with in Burgundy, their vineyards are subdivided into small parcels, with each cuvée being a transparent expression of the specific site, vintage and grape variety (Chenin Blanc for Montlouis, Cabernet Franc for Bourgueil). For the first time, we are thrilled to introduce a Bourgueil to our selection.

Jean-Paul Brun, Terres Dorées 2020

Jean-Paul Brun's youthful Saint-Amour comes from a south-east facing plot of 50-year-old Gamay vines, whose roots burrow deeply into the siliceous granite soil. The wine was made "the Burgundian way," with hand picking of grapes, careful sorting, destemming and regular punching down during fermentation to extract juiciness of flavour and structure. Pale ruby, this has a glorious red cherry scent, leading to a medium bodied palate that is gentle and poised. This is a concentrated, delicately structured Cru Beaujolais, with supple texture and excellent length (13%).

SAINT-JOSEPH MÉRIBETS

12b 236.00 19.70

Domaine Vallet 2019

Les Mériquets comes from 8 parcels of Syrah vines located in the hills surrounding the domaine. It aged in barrel for 10 months, with no new oak, to allow it to retain gleaming fruitiness whilst developing velvety textures. Mid ruby colour, the nose is wonderfully perfumed, with notes of black berries and liquorice. Full bodied, this is a poised wine, with a fleshy middle and good structure (14% - for drinking 2022-2027+).

Premier Cru NV

This Premier Cru Blanc de Blancs is a single terroir Chardonnay from pure chalk soils in the village of Villers-Marmery. A particularity of Henriët Bazin is that their reserve wine (30% of the final blend) is held in a Solera, a practice more commonly seen in the wineries of Jerez. The gradual, fractional blending of vintages, dating back to 1968, contributes rich complexity. Pale lemon-gold in the glass, with vivacious bubbles, aromas are lifted and fine: lemon pastry, freshly baked bread. Palate is fine and focussed, having excellent depth and a beautifully fresh finish (12%).

A generous 40% of the blend is from aged reserve wine. Very pale, crystalline gold colour, the nose recalls white peach and spiced citrus with notes of honeysuckle and toasted hazelnuts. On the palate, this bears all the hallmarks of a Charles Heidsieck Champagne: boldness, generosity and elegance. Embracing yet light, it displays appealing mineral notes, and has a velvety texture (12%).

Pale gold colour with glints of light green, the nose displays fresh citrus notes along with quince, delicate smoke and buttery caramel.
